SPICES

Methi - Fenugreek Methi is one of the most common vegetables and spices in Nepalese cuisine. Methi is used as a herb, spice (dried or fresh leaves) vegetable (as leaves), sprout and micro cress. Cuboid-shaped, yellow to amber-coloured fenugreek seeds are frequently encountered in the cuisines of the Indian subcontinent both used whole and ground for the preparation of pickles, vegetable dishes, dal, and spice mixes such as Nepalese Choella, sprouted raw salad and curry. They are often roasted to reduce bitterness, enhance flavour and tempered in mustard oil to infuse an aroma. It has high health benefits which helps improve indigestion, sluggish liver dysentery, diarrhoea, skin disorders and mouth sores, healing joint problems, reduces mental stress, prevents blood sugar, reduces post delivery weaknesses and weight management.

Timboor - Schuwan Pepper A unique Himalayan herb, Timboor (Schuwan pepper) is one of popular spices used for chutney and curries in the Nepalese cuisine to produce the distinct Nepalese taste. Its unique aroma and flavor with slight lemony hint, creates a tingling numbness in the mouth. Recipes often suggest lightly toasting the tiny seed pods, then crushing them before adding them to chutney and curries. It contains many different minerals, nutrients, and antioxidants like potassium, vitamin A iron, manganese, zinc, copper and phosphorous. It helps reduce blood pressure, prevent cramping, constipation and bloating stomach, eliminate inflammation in body, build the strong bones, to help appetite and reduce pain.

Jwano - Ajwain Ajwain is one of the most popular spices in all geographic conditions and cultural practices in Nepal. Ajwain's small, oval-shaped, seed-like fruits are pale brown schizocarps. They have a bitter and pungent taste, with a flavour similar to anise and oregano. It contains many health benefits including digestive, antibacterial, antiseptic and antifungal properties. It is rich in dietary fibre, essential minerals and vitamins. Using powdered Ajwain in any sauce, soup or salad or just drinking water with some seeds helps in supplying calcium in the body. Garnishing beans soup with Ajwain helps balance any gas content in the beans. Using it in green leafy vegetable enhances absorption of vitamins of the greens.

Bire Nun - Himalayan Salt Himalayan Black salt is a kiln-fired rock salt mostly used in Nepal and other South Asian countries with a sulphurous, powerful-smell. The salts are mined in the regions surrounding the Himalayas. When grounded into a powder, its colour ranges from purple to pink. Himalayan Black salt has been acknowledged in Ayurvedic and used for its distinguished medical qualities. It helps balance blood sugar, support weight loss, hormone balance, reduce muscle cramps and acts as a powerful antihistamine. It is used for chutneys, pickle, dressing, fruits and other snacks food.

Garam Masala is a blend of ground spices, originating from Indian, Nepalese, Bangladeshi cuisines. A mixture of cumin, coriander seeds, green cardamom, cinamon, pepper corns, fennel, cloves, star seeds, nutmegs, curry leaves as ingredients.
